Scam Alert

Manchester Police would like to alert the public to a scam call that has recently begun circulating in the area.

Several people have called to report that a person claiming to be a Manchester Police Officer has called and demanded money. The scammer uses the name of an officer who works here at the Manchester Police Department and tells the person that they owe thousands of dollars in court fees. The caller also tells the victim that there is a warrant for their arrest, and if they hang up, they will be arrested.

There are no calls of this nature originating from the Manchester Police Department. If you get a similar call, do not send any money. Always contact your local police department to verify.
